Enhancing economic capacity for resilience against bonded servitude:

The Kamlahari Practice Abolition Project in Nepal

STRIVE Symposium
06 March 2015

Promoting child rights to end child poverty
Kamlahari are bonded female child laborers from indigenous Tharu community.
Life Skill Education Campaigns Lobby/Advocacy Financial Service

Causes and Consequences of Powerlessness

Illiteracy/ignorance
Economic Poverty
Powerlessness
Indebtness
Encroaching from migrants
Feudal values

Plan’s intervention

Skill training Enterprise Dev. CPS Strengt. Edu support
Rescue, rehabilitation and access to education
Enhancing livelihoods and strengthening child protection mechanisms

Strategic Linkages